From the Rector's Desk

Pentecost. Originally, the Jewish feast where the first-fruits of the corn harvest were presented, fell 50 days after the Passover. To Christians, the day became honored for the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the disciples as recorded in Acts 2.1. It has also been called Whitsunday (White-Son-Day — as it was customary for baptizands to wear white robes). Pentecost ranks after Easter in the chief feasts of the Church Year. We might also understand it to be our Inauguration Day. Just as Presidents and Governors have their day when the power of a political office is conferred, so it is that Christians remember the first day when powers Holy were conferred on us.

Holy Spirit and Holy Ghost are two simpler ascriptions of this Holy power conferred. Paraclete. Comforter. Advocate. Counselor. In either name, we find not a thing, but a presence; we are introduced to an experience, not a concept. English poet Gerald Manley Hopkins writes of the Spirit,

"[the Holy Spirit]...is just that, something that cheers the spirit of man, with signals and cries, all zealous that he should do something and full of assurance that if he will he can; calling him on, springing to meet him halfway, crying to his ears as to his heart, 'This way to do God's will; this way to save your soul: Come on, come on!'"

Come on then, People of Holy Spirit! See the signal and cries, hear the voice calling forth our obedience and action. Feel the conferring of God's Holy Power, providing the grace to accomplish that which we have been given the will to do.

From The Deacon's Corner

It is almost 18 months since I arrived at CHS. The people are amazing. Our groups (We Care, Culinary Angels, etc.) absolutely overwhelm me. When there is a need, someone is there to help. There are many people who do whatever needs to be done. Jesus tells us to love our neighbors as we love ourselves. The parishioners of CHS do that on a daily basis. We get the message! It warms my heart to be with you on Sunday and to share the Lord's meal. When I announced that I was going to CHS, some folks were surprised. In fact, about two months ago, I was at a meeting with the Director of the Deacons' School. Her first remark to me was, "I never would have pictured you at CHS!" Coming here was one of the best choices I ever made.

Every Monday and Wednesday I do my best to go to the Edna Mahan Correctional Facility for Women for the Shawl Ministry. Somehow, I seem to have become a fixture at the Grounds Group (minimum security). One of these days I will learn to crochet and spend more time with the women in Max (maximum security) who are allowed to use the small crochet hooks only. The women who come to Shawl Ministry are so very happy to be there. It is two hours of rest, relaxation and creativity. If you have not seen some of the beautiful shawls they make, stop by to see me one day and I will show you.

My thanks to Fr. Phil for his guidance and leadership. Special thanks, also, to Linda Romanoski (the Parish Administrator) and Barbara Burton (one of our long-term fixtures). They are always available to direct me to where I need to go or what I need to do. God blessed me by leading me to CHS. I will always be grateful. For those wonderful people who keep asking, and offering help, I am almost set in my new apartment. Still don't have places to put things – but I'm not giving up!!

Peace, Deacon Dot

Words from the Senior Warden

We are so grateful to have received the matching grant towards funding of the elevator project, and are finalizing proposals with both the wheelchair lift company and general contractor. Our goal is for installation of the elevator to occur during the early summer, as the need for its use continues to grow.

The Back to Basics Service Auction was a truly lovely event and the outcome, simply amazing... Thank you to so many for your time, talent and treasure. I am particularly grateful to Marge Keller, Cate Mattison, Jan Paxton, and John Rollins for their extraordinary efforts to make it such a success.

In this issue, Junior Warden Jon Babek and Vestry Treasurer Gabrielle Bolarakis share key updates regarding rectory renovations and property, stewardship, and our financial position. Please be sure to take a look.

Finally, I would like to acknowledge the tremendous outpouring of caregiving, supportive leadership and love within our community of faith as we have navigated the incredibly tragic events and heart-wrenching loss of late April. In my lifetime I cannot recall witnessing the movement of the Holy Spirit more palpably.

Eva Lesniak

Musings from the Junior Warden

Acclimating to the role of Junior Warden has been a blast. We have an excellent Vestry and I would encourage anyone with an interest to attend our next meeting. Vestry meetings are open to the entire parish. On to business...

Our technology initiative is moving forward, even if a bit slowed by other ongoing projects. We have been approved by Google as a non-profit, and will start to set up our G-Suite account. This will pave the way for Google Calendars, which we hope to have in place soon.

The Rectory and main Church projects are underway, although we have hit a few administrative hurdles during the process. Without going into the lengthy saga of why we need multiple approvals from the township for the up-and-coming rectory renovation, the end result is that we are on track for final approval soon.

Looking to the expansion of the First Steps facility, we now have a proposed plan that will not only allow them to expand; it will upgrade the institutional code for that section of the building. This means that in the future, that space can be used for things other than a children's daycare. Why should you care? None of us knows what is going to happen in 10 years, and we are making sure that we can adjust with the needs of the community.

Last and not least, I would like to thank the Youth Ministry for undertaking an energy audit of CHS. Their efforts were coordinated by Julie Stein and Michelle Marlow. The group brought a number of items to our attention where energy could be saved and also pointed to parts of the facility that require some adjustments. The efforts of these great young people will make CHS a more efficient place and help us in our stewardship of God's resources.

Yours in Faith, Jon

Jonathon Babek

A Message from the Treasurer

Dear Friends,

Our Finance Committee continues to meet monthly to update and review our income and expenses. As we enter the second third ( $\frac{1}{3}$ ) of the year, here is an update to our 2017 financial position. As I write this message we have four recorded months of financial activity; Jan – April 2017.

Our primary source of revenue is the pledge income we receive from those of you who made a pledge, and those who have made non-pledge and plate contributions. Over the last seventeen weeks, the rate of pledge contributions has begun to align with the budgeted contribution schedule:

	Pledge
Weekly budget goal	$4,100
Year –to-date budget goal	$69,700
Year-to-date actual offering	$91,937

With this rate of contribution, we are now $22,237 ahead of schedule due to pledges that are paid up for the fiscal year creating a temporary cushion, this will even out as the year progresses. Well done!

Our Auction Gala was held on April 28th. Please refer to Marge Keller's report on page 15. The numbers presented therein will be finalized and incorporated into future Treasurer's reports.

On the expenditure side, the church staff and budget holders continue to be diligent stewards. The operating costs which are mostly fixed are being well managed. The chart below shows how we are performing against our operating budget. The challenge this summer will be managing cash flow during the Rectory renovation. The renovation provides a wonderful opportunity for CHS, but the expenditures being incurred were not anticipated in the 2017 budget.

	YTD 2017	BUDGET 2017
OPERATING REVENUE
Fund Raisers	24,030	22,145
Primary Revenue	112,144	284,679
EXPENSE
Admin	$93,501	$257,108
Property-Utilities	$18,618	$45,350
Rectory Expenses	$16,815	$6,000
Mortgage	$5,428	$16,284
Other	$1,056	$7,636

As we approach the summer holidays we encourage the maintenance of a stable pledge or non-pledge contribution schedule (weekly, monthly etc.) to meet our annual goal. Please make every possible effort to bring and keep your pledges up to date. For your convenience, you will now find a PayPal button set up on the Stewardship page of our web site, where you can easily make your summer pledge contributions while off traveling and having fun with friends and family.

If you are new to our church community and would like to make a pledge at this time, please contact our pledge clerk, Ed Filipski. Likewise, if you made a pledge for this year and need to amend it, please reach out to Ed at ed.filipski@churchholyspirit.org

Our church is a beautiful worship space that is supported by all of you in many ways – financially and with your time and talents. We would like to keep it running smoothly through the rest of the year and we thank you in advance for your participation in our mission.

Gabrielle Bolarakis

Filling the Red Wagon

Summer is difficult for our area food pantries since many folks who generally contribute on a regular basis are traveling. That said, we recommend the following contributions:

For June — Canned Fruit

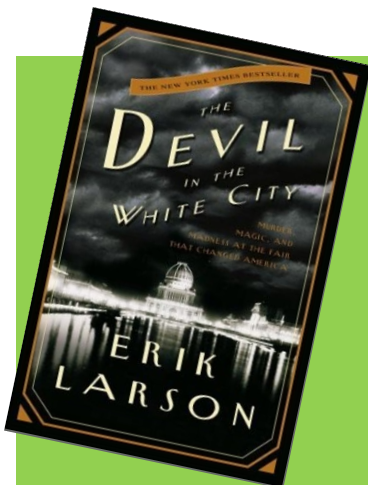

For July — Pasta and/or sauce

For August — Soup

Your consideration for others is always appreciated!! Katie and Julie thank you! And thanks to all who answered the call for our special Mother's Day collection of diapers and other sanitary products.

Suzanne Higgins

Spirited Readers Book Club

Our next book for summer reading is, "The Devil in the White City," by Erik Larson. This best-selling novel is the true story of two men: Daniel Burnham, the architect of the 1893 Chicago World's Fair, and H. H. Holmes, a serial killer masquerading as a charming doctor. We will meet following the 10 am service on July 23rd.

First Sunday Breakfasts

April Under the direction of Pat Birdsall, the men of CHS dazzled us with delightful eats consisting of waffles, French toast, pancakes, eggs and sausage, breakfast fruits, coffee cake, juice and coffee. Arden Olsen and Andy Follansbee cooked waffles while Pat prepared pancakes on the griddle; David Livingston brought his special overnight French toast casserole; Bob Jones cooked scrambled eggs and brought breakfast sausage; Hal Murray sliced breakfast fruits; Ed Filipiski brought a coffee cake; John Andrews and Larry Robinson contributed the syrup, butter, juices, honey, and ketchup; and Sy Warnowicz brought in Munchkins. Thanks guys – you did a great job!

May The Taylors, Andra and Patrick and the Tevebaughs, Anne, John, and AJ, prepared and served a wonderful breakfast on May 7. We were presented with a breakfast casserole bowl with sausage, mushrooms, and eggs; cheddar cheese strata with mushrooms, onions, and peppers; egg and vegetable piccata with peppers, onions, tomatoes, spinach, and mozzarella; a fresh fruit bowl; hard boiled eggs; baked oatmeal; and pancakes with an excellent raisin topping. Thanks for serving such a wonderful feast.

Weekly Altar Flower Dedication Sign-ups — Reminder

In case you missed the message in the last issue, a repetition: The Altar Guild has recently introduced a more convenient way for you to sign up for weekly dedications. Instead of using the kiosk board in the Narthex, look for a binder on the table there. The entire year is included, so you can sign up months ahead of time if you wish to hold a special date. The binder is pictured here, and you'll find the simple instructions inside it as well.

Susan Landgraf

Toiletries Needed for Seamen's Church Institute

If you are traveling for business or pleasure this summer, please consider bringing back any hotel toiletries you may encounter and don't use. [Ed note: An extra trick: if you're at a hotel for more than one day and don't feel uncomfortable saving the daily horde of goodies so that you get replacements the next day, that would be great — the more the merrier! After all, this is for a good cause!]

In November we'll be making ditty bags for mariners as part of Seamen's Church Institute's Christmas at Sea project, and small toiletries are included in the bag. There will be a basket in the Narthex to collect them. Thank you.

June Filipiski

From the Acolyte Corner

On Pentecost Sunday, June 4th, not only will we be celebrating the gift and power of the Holy Spirit, but we will be recognizing the gift that the Acolytes give us. Many of the children have progressed from one level to the next which is indicated by the color of the string for their cross. The colors represent the following years of service:

- White 1 year,
- Green 2-3 years,
- Red 4-5 years,
- Purple 6-7 years,
- Gold 8 or more years.

The Acolytes have a great deal of pride in the color of their cross string. Please share in their enthusiasm and pride not only on June 4th but always.

Our summer acolyte overnight will be sometime in August, as usual. Watch the Friday email news, the Sunday bulletins, and the CHS website for more information.

Also welcome our newest Acolyte, Hayleigh Masenior. Any children age 7 or older can volunteer to be an Acolyte. Training is quite simple and free! Please consider trying this out to see if this ministry is for you. Adults, can you ask your children if they'd be interested? If so, please contact me either by phone or email; 908-337-3228; jdaniels\_fire@yahoo.com.

Thanks,

Jack Daniels

From our Deacon in Training: Michelleslie Maltese-Nehrbass

In case you missed our introduction to Michelleslie in the last issue and have not yet had an opportunity to meet her, here's a reprise of the short piece we ran in April-May. With one change: your editor was incorrect in her assumption that Michelleslie would be with us only until the end of the year. Her training program dictates that she worship with us until her ordination.

Michelleslie has been a member of Calvary Church in Flemington for 20 years and has lived in Raritan Township for 29 years. She received a BA in Communication with a concentration in health communication from the College of New Jersey in 2011 and is halfway through the 3-year Deacon Formation/Training Program; her ordination date is January 2019. In addition to her time with us, Michelleslie is taking Clinical Pastoral Education [CPE] courses in Deacon Formation as well as CPE outside of Deacon Formation as an intern in a clinical setting at Capital Health.

Below is her explanation of what Clinical Pastoral Education is for those of us who are not aware of this ministry. [Ed note: We were speaking recently about this and Michelleslie commented that she finds CPE to be very like our 'We Care' Group. We bring God's love to those who are in need of comfort, and there is no better example of this than how our beautiful church community has wrapped its arms around each other in recent weeks when we were faced with unexpected and unspeakable tragedy.]

In ministry, we are always working with individuals. Working effectively one-on-one involves courses in Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE). Clinical Pastoral Education was conceived as a method of learning pastoral practice in a clinical setting under supervision. CPE is required in seminary, deacon formation and chaplaincy. CPE is about meeting people who are in crisis and working to bring them to a place of acknowledgement and eventually change. Chaplains spread God's light in the darkness. The power in CPE does not come from the individuals in crisis or the chaplain — the power comes from God.

Chaplains walk alongside those who are going through trauma, transformation, and transition, and with those who are in spiritual homelessness. Working with an individual requires a pastoral assessment which encompasses a matrix of understanding that must be reached — in some cases — quickly. The chaplains may ask themselves; What defines this person? What is going on? Why is this situation the way that it is? At the same time, the individual may wonder if the chaplain can be trusted. Is the chaplain going to judge me? Do you think I'll be okay?

A chaplain must be aware of asking too many questions, which can lead to transference and/or countertransference. Questions can put people on the defensive and imply that answers are expected. Transference is what the individual projects onto you. Countertransference is what about their story strikes or stirs up things in you, and this can happen easily to a chaplain. Pastoral work takes place among the chaplain, the individual seeking pastoral guidance, and God. The encounter is not about the chaplain trying to fix, diagnose or judge the individual, the conversation or their past or present actions. It is, rather, about encouraging and empowering people to examine their complicated lives and experiences: those that have brought them to where they are today.

In CPE, we learn how to learn from our ministry, to become more effective by attending the realities of the human condition. Chaplains provide pastoral spiritual care, guidance and support for those in crisis, joy, anxiety, loss and pain. Faith is a way to help with confusion and the healing process.

Michelleslie

We Care

We are surrounded by constant confirmation that we ALL care. How very fortunate we are! The wheels of WE CARE continue to move steadily throughout our faith family providing love and comfort. If ANYONE should become aware of a situation please let either of us know. We need to be informed in order to set those wheels in motion.

One duty that we feel needs clarification: A Guardian Angel. If you are asked by one of us to be someone's Angel, please don't panic!!! It simply means you will be the contact person for that one particular situation. You don't have to do it ALL! However, YOU will be the Angel who puts out a request for meals or transportation or phone calls/notes or visits or anything else a situation requires. Rest assured, there is LOTS of help out there!

As an example, we recently had a request for transportation and we got more drivers than there are days in a week!!!

It was heartwarming and encouraging — not only for us — but also for the person on the receiving end.

LOVE is an "action" word. Jesus tells us to love our neighbor as ourselves. Let this be our calling and commitment.

Susan Kane & Sue Quinlan

Culinary Angels

CHS's culinary angels provide meals twice per month for Family Promise. How can you participate? Be a cook: ideas include hearty soups, casseroles and fresh fruits/vegetables. Label your contribution and leave it in the CHS kitchen fridge. Be a packer: twice per month on Monday nights angels gather to pack and label donations. Be a driver: deliver meals. Be a donor: make a monetary donation which will be used for meals or containers.

For more information contact June Filipski at juned.fil@gmail.com or Joanne Warnowicz at 908-537-4422. Dates are posted here in the newsletter, in the bulletin and on the CHS calendar on our website.

Andra Taylor

Pulse of the Parish

We welcome into the household of God Hazel Mae Babek, baptized on Easter Eve. Her proud parents are Jonathon and Lawren Babek; older brother Liam was also part of the celebration.

Births:

Gary and Mary Scott welcomed their fifth grandchild on April 26. Claire Elizabeth Frank is the daughter of Sarah and Steve Frank of Pittsburgh PA. Claire joins big brother Wyatt, who is two.

Sally and Howard Bird welcomed their 6th grandchild, Emily Fay Bird, born on April 20th to son Greg and his wife Claire, who live in Pelham, NH. Emily joins big brother Conor and big sister Katelyn.

Congratulations to:

Julie Schmidt and Katie Higgins for their medal-winning performances at the Special Olympics.

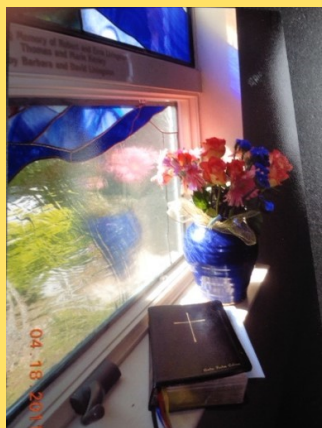

Amy Schroeder on her recent induction into the National Honor Society.

Eli Jones on becoming an Eagle Scout.

All this spring's graduates

Best Wishes to: Paul Shallo and Ketevan Khurtsilava, who were joined in holy matrimony on April 8th at CHS. Paul is the son of parishioners Joanne and Anthony Shallo. May the peace of the Lord be always with them for a long and blessed marriage.

Deepest Sympathy to:

Sharon Tripodi photo

The Sullivan family on the death of former parishioner Sandra (Sandy), beloved wife, mother grandmother and friend, who passed away peacefully at home in Morrow, Ohio on April 5th. Funeral services were held at CHS on April 22nd; interment was scheduled in Massachusetts for a later date.

Parishioner Jane Roxbury and the Helwig Family on the tragic death of Larry Helwig, who perished in a fatal traffic accident on April 23, 2017. Funeral services were held at Church of the Holy Spirit on Friday, April 28th. Interment was private.

John and Susan Rivers on the death of Susan's mother, Mary Margaret Stevens, on April 30th in California.

May the souls of all the departed, through the mercy of God, rest in Peace.

Life is short and we do not have too much time to gladden the hearts of those who travel the way with us; so be swift to love and make haste to be kind. God bless,

Barbara Burton

HOLD THE DATES

Pentecost Sunday is June 4th—wear red! Please join us for either the 8 or 10:00 service as we celebrate our Patronal Festival and the birthday of the Church. We will be recognizing our high school and college graduates and our faithful acolytes (see page 7 for more information). Breakfast between the services.

Going Mod (all-parish meeting) on June 11th. Watch the website and Friday email newsletter for more information (and no, we aren't going back to the 60s.....).

Hospitality Module begins September 10

CHS will kick off fall with the start of the Hospitality Module. Plans for youth events will center on the story of the Prodigal Son, welcoming and forgiveness. Intergenerational activities will include a parish picnic, blessing of backpacks and worshipping together. We need volunteers to work with the youth, help with the picnic and other activities. Interested? Contact Ron Schroeder, module captain; Michelle Marlow, Youth Formation coordinator or Marge Keller, Vestryperson. (their phone numbers and email addresses are listed on the last page of this newsletter).

Good Friday Day of Service

Many thanks to a wonderful gathering on Good Friday, 2017!! Over 100 people participated in the day, which began in Dove Hall for a lovely breakfast compliments of the Vestry. The commissioning service followed in the sanctuary, with three groups (12 of whom initially began work at Good News Home) with over twenty departing for Mr. Fixit projects, helping seniors with homes located from Glen Gardner, to Whitehouse, to Flemington, and Milford. A potted plant was left at each stop. Three adults and more than twenty teens went to Grow-a-Row in Pittstown (from whom we have already received a letter of thanks)!! Sixteen women made thirty-eight beautiful and colorful pillow cases for Safe in Hunterdon, and nine ditty bags for Seamen's Institute. Almost fifteen parishioners polished silver, cleaned the sanctuary, and worked in the kitchen and gardens at CHS, while another twenty worked on the rectory and grounds. I think it's safe to say "a good time was had by all" and we were blessed with a really beautiful Good Friday Day of Service.

Back to Basics Auction Success

With many thanks to all who worked on the Back to Basics auction and all who attended and bid like crazy on the over 100 items offered, I am pleased to announce that we exceeded expectations, with a resulting net income of $22,000!

The April 28th event, with 100 guests in attendance, was a fun evening with delicious appetizers prepared by Gourmet Expressions of Lebanon, various choices of wines and beer selected by Father Phil, and a wonderful new auctioneer, Mr. Rod Donovan.

Donations from parishioners and local businesses included a year of desserts by Natalie Marlow, a week in Maine on a beautiful lake thanks to Eleanor Tessier, Bayou Bash from Father "Cajun Chef" Phil, dinner parties, limo service, sports tickets, and the list goes on. Thank you to all donors; without your generosity the auction would not have succeeded.

There's a great deal of behind-the-scenes activity before and during the event. I am grateful to have had my hand held by Jan Paxton while she shared her knowledge and experience from past auctions. Jan was also responsible for all the IT parts of the auction from tracking tickets sales, tracking donations, and keeping the website information current to creating the final version of the catalog. John Rollins got us started with the clever logos that represented our theme so well. The sparkling decorations on the tables were thematically created by Cate Mattison; they really made Dove Hall zing! There are countless others who helped with setup and cleanup, too many to name here, but know that I am thankful for your generously given time and for all the chores you performed on the logistics of the evening.

We'll be setting the date for Auction 2018 soon. Watch this newsletter for information and plan to attend the next wonderful evening of fundraising to benefit the myriad outreach programs at the most amazing parish in Hunterdon County.
