Joyful Noise From the Junior Warden

Now is the Lord brought to peace.
 The trouble is over, which our sins caused for him.
 O sacred bones, See how I weep for you with penance and remorse
 That my fall has brought you into such distress!
 As long as life lasts Have a thousand thanks for your sufferings
 For having valued so highly the salvation of my soul

J. S. Bach, Saint Matthew Passion

I mentioned in the previous Trumpeter issue that I sing with the Bach Choir of Bethlehem. Two weekends every May are the heart of our season: the annual Bethlehem Bach Festival. This year was the 114th Festival.

On the Saturdays of the Festival, the choir—and our Festival Orchestra—perform Bach's B Minor Mass. The Mass is a 3-hour collection of the traditionally sung portions of a mass: the Kyrie, Gloria, Creed, Sanctus, etc., all the way through to closing with Dona Nobis Pacem (not the Dona Nobis Pacem version you're likely thinking of at this moment, though).

Each year, our Artistic Director selects other Bach works to perform on the two Fridays of the Festival. For the 114th Festival, our director chose Bach's Saint Matthew Passion—the last major work Bach composed. The Saint Matthew Passion is based on the Passion section of the Gospel of Matthew set to beautiful music, and sung in German, of course.

The quote at the top of this article is the final Recitative* of the Saint Matthew Passion. The soloists (Bass, Tenor, Alto, then Soprano), sing the poetry, above (also in German). Following each solo, the choir sings: Mein Jesu, mein Jesu, mein Jesu, gute Nacht! [Translated: My Jesus, good night!]

The German, set to Bach's genius and masterful music, is so much more moving than the English translation. The simple words are set to four simple music lines that, when interwoven, are ach-ing-ly beautiful. I have determined this Recitative to be the Best Bit Bach Ever Composed. Granted, I have experienced only a small percentage of Bach's approximately 1,128 compositions. However, I am confident I will not find any other Bach work better than this short part from the Saint Matthew Passion.

Google "Nun ist der Herr zur Ruh gebracht" (the first line, above, in German) to find a YouTube performance. I hope you find it meaningful. [I sent a link to my mom and, although she appreciated my enthusiasm, she admitted she personally didn't "get it". However, I hope you'll at least give it a try. Just like Mom did.]

On Vestry, my focus is everything related to Worship. I'm eager (really, truly, I am!) to know your favorite hymn so I can include it during service. If you'd like to suggest (or write!) a poem or prose for the bulletin front page, share that with me as well.

*Narrative parts of opera and oratorio, sung in the rhythm of ordinary speech with many words on the same note.

Treasurer's Report

As of the end of March our financial results for 2022 are as follows:

	YTD	Budget YTD
Operating Revenue	$ 111,407	$ 104,650
Total Expense	$ 123,503 	$ 118,019
Net	$ (12,096)	$ (13,369)

A couple of notes regarding our finances:

- ◆ * *Expense line includes the down-payment for the air conditioning system of about $8,700. To date, we have received donations toward the system for over half of the expected cost. Once the final bill is paid and restricted funds are transferred to the air conditioning expense line the net amount will be reflected.
- ◆ When the YTD restricted funds donation line is included in our revenue, our YTD net is positive $2,404.
- ◆ We have budgeted $20,000 for our auction – which was moved from a May date to September. Proceeds from this annual fundraiser will help our financial results.

The Endowment Committee has re-formed and information from that committee should be forthcoming in the next month or so. The members of that committee are: Rex Van Veldhuisen – chair, Eva Lesniak – secretary, Gabrielle Bolarakis, Katie Gnash, and Gary Scott.

Thank you to all for your continued support of CHS. Many of you have given of your time and talent, as well. We are especially blessed in our congregants.

As always, if you have any questions, please feel free to reach out to me.

Food Pantry

We are so grateful for the continued generosity of our parish to the Open Cupboard Food Pantry. Their staff often expresses their appreciation for our non-stop efforts to support the community. As a reminder, we are asking for any healthy, non-perishable food item. Suggestions range from cereal to juice to canned soups and vegetables.

Please note, too, that the Food Pantry accepts gift cards and checks, if you find this an easier way to donate to their services. You may mail a gift card, check or money order, payable to :Open Cupboard Food Pantry, Inc., P.O. Box 5071, Clinton, NJ 08809. You may also donate online through PayPal.

Knit & Chat

K&C has been running for some weeks now. Such a pleasant two-hour respite from the stresses of the day. We meet at church at 1:00 pm each Monday afternoon and leave promptly at 3:00 pm. Those two hours just fly by and certainly beat doing household chores.

Conversation subjects are wide and varied and can be very funny at times. Boy, it feels good to hear the laughter after the past two years! It's a great opportunity to get to know each other better.

So ... please join us; or at least give us a try. The more, the merrier. We have yarn. We have needles. We have instructors. Finish off an old project or start a new one. There will be no shortage of encouragement - I guarantee it.

Food Collection for Cristo Rey

We are collecting non-perishable food to deliver to Cristo Rey, our sister parish in Trenton. There will be a special collection box/basket in the Narthex near the Red Wagon for canned and dry foods and sundries. We all are aware of rising prices everywhere. This is especially impactful when you live on a low or limited income. In the Cristo Rey neighborhood, there are no major grocery stores, only Mom and Pop's, so shoppers were already paying higher prices for groceries before this current economic spike. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

DOVE HALL FLOOR TO BE REFINISHED

The floor in Dove Hall will be refinished on Friday June 17th. The hall will not be accessible for use or for foot traffic Friday the 17th or Saturday June 18th to allow the new finish to dry completely.

Picnic at Duke Island Park: Saturday, June 18th

We will be providing hamburgers, hot dogs and veggie burgers as well as soft drinks. We ask that you bring a salad/side dish and/or dessert. Please sign up for the picnic on line or at church and let us know how many people in your party, what you might be bringing and contact information in case of inclement weather. The Home Page of the CHS website has much more information and directions. Click churchholyspirit.org

Dinner and Lay Ministry Training: Tuesday, June 21st

Lay Ministry training will take place on June 21st beginning at 6:00 pm. We will begin the evening with dinner, provided by the Cajun Dragon. After, we'll move to the sanctuary to walk through the choreography of a Sunday service with a focus on the roles of lay ministers. All who serve in Sunday morning ministries such as Readers, LEM's, Ushers, Counters, Altar Guild, etc., are strongly encouraged to attend.

Book Group Meeting Sunday, June 26th

The Book Group's next selection is Ghost Story by Peter Straub. As a New York Times bestseller, it has been considered one of Straub's best releases. The story focuses on four aging men, friends, who gather to relive experiences of their past. The book kit was available in the Church office as of May 21, and the Group plans to meet after the 10:00 am service on Sunday, June 26. For any questions, contact Suzanne Higgins, suzanne.l.higgins@gmail.com.

Somerset Patriots Ball Game: Saturday, July 9th, 7:00 pm

Tickets $9.50 each; children under 3 free. Please let Dale Dabour know if you are coming (and how many in your party) and then you can sign up and pay on the CHS website, churchholyspirit.org. If we get enough folks we'll be invited to sing "Take Me Out to the Ballgame" to the crowd! For information, email daledabour@gmail.com.

Summer Musical Offerings

We all know there is a lot of musical talent out there in the pews of Church of the Holy Spirit! Now is the time to let your light shine. If you sing or play an instrument and have a favorite piece that you already know or hope to learn, please consider offering a musical selection during worship in the month of July or August. Individuals or small groups welcome. Email Trish at simpsoncurtint@yahoo.com for more information.

Choir Camp is Back: July 11-17

Choir Camp is on! July 11-17 We will once again have choir camp this summer! It will take place at Holiday House/Cape May. Choristers 10-18 years of age are welcome to join us. You may register with Kathe Christiansen at the Church of the Advent (609.884.3065 or adventsecretary@comcast.net). There will also be a registration form on the website, <https://njchoircamp.weebly.com>. All campers will be required to be fully vaccinated, and show proof of vaccination. The fee for each camper is $475, including lodging and meals.

CHSchool

PARABLES, POEMS, PLAYS, PRAYERS AND PROSE ON THE PORCH (P6) - IS BACK!

Building on the success of last summer's get-togethers, we will be sharing our favorite readings with each other on the CHS front porch. Fr. Phil will facilitate our readings once again. Join us to share some of your favorites - or just listen. Have a friend who loves to read? Invite them to join us. Each week is self contained, so you can attend all or just a few of our gatherings. All are invited as we visit with one another in person and discover ways of reading the beauty of words written for fun, praise and prayer, and pure pleasure. There are no limits...a special poem, a children's story, a favorite author, or a selection from the BCP, a prayer, a collect, or a parable.

Join us on the porch at CHS on Mondays this summer beginning June 28 thru August 1st, from 7:00- 8:00 pm. Refreshments will be served. If you would like to help with the refreshments, please contact Wendy Hallstrom at whallstrom@comcast.net.

A PRIMER ON GENDER - LGBTQ INFORMATION SESSIONS: JUNE 23RD AND 30TH

"Our door is always open..." We prominently, and proudly, display this welcome on our website and all communications. But how do we welcome people we don't always understand?

June is national Pride month. Here at CHS, we will recognize Pride month with a two-week Primer on Gender. In recent decades, there has been a lot of attention paid to transgender individuals in our country. This can be a confusing and sometimes difficult topic to understand. What does it mean to be transgender, nonbinary, or gender variant? How do we speak with and welcome these unique people in a Christian way? I have been an ally to the transgender community for almost 10 years. Join me for a 2 session Primer on Gender the last 2 weeks of June. I'll explain the ABCs of gender, discuss polite ways of communicating with transgender individuals, how to be supportive, and finish up with what the Bible and the Christian church says about gender variance. Each session will include an open discussion period.

Details: Thursday, June 23rd and 30th, 7:30 - 8:30 pm

Meetings will be hybrid - in person we'll meet in the St. Julian room in the undercroft. Zoom registration is required for on-line attendees. The registration link is: <https://us06web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZEpf-morT0vEtQTQUvCdY3UTZs65nwMGWj6>

Want to do more? The Jersey Pride Celebration is Sunday June 5th in Asbury Park. The Diocese LGBTQ Commission is marching in the Jersey Pride parade and will have a table at the festival and welcomes all Episcopalians to join them.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL: AUGUST 8 —12

Calling all children from Kindergarten age and up - join Fr. Phil and a cast of others as for VBS 2022 - The Good Shepherd. Vacation Bible School will meet the week of August 8 through 12 from 9:00 am to 12 noon each day. We are working on what we believe will be an exciting program with formation and fun incorporated into each activity. We hope your child(ren) will be joining us. Watch for registration information in the weekly News Blasts.

ART WITH WHITNEY WETHERILL: ONGOING

Yes, you can draw and paint!! We have quite a few parishioners who have discovered their innate talent through Whitney's knowledgeable, fun classes twice a week over the past several years. Give it a try if you're available during the day. Those who attend agree that it's a restful hour, a chance to regroup and forget the stresses of life. We meet via Zoom on Monday and Thursday mornings at 10:00 am. If you are interested, contact Whitney directly at wwetherill@gmail.com.

Around the County

Farm Stands Re-energized: (check individual websites for operating hours and days—here's an easy link: Farm markets Hunterdon County - Bing or search individual web pages for most up-to-date information.

We welcome into the household of God

Savannah Leigh Rivera, daughter of Frankie and Ashley Rivera and granddaughter of Jay and Nanette Chardoussin, baptized on May 1st.

Rest eternal grant to them, O Lord:

Jim Ryan, father of James Ryan, in April

Sharon Wood, long-time member of CHS and wife of John, in May. A celebration of her life will be held at CHS on July 30th, with a reception to follow.

May light perpetual shine upon them, O Lord, whom you welcome as your faithful servants into eternal peace.

Making a Prayer Request

You may enter a request for prayer or thanksgiving on the CHS Website. These on-line requests go to the CHS Prayer Chain. Requests sent to the church office by email (to admin@churchholyspirit.net) or phone (908-236-6301) do not. You can also enter a special request before the services on Sunday (check the Narthex for the sign-up sheet) and it will be included in the Prayers of the People.

If you are a member of the Prayer Chain and have not been seeing prayer requests, check your spam folder!

During the pandemic, when so much of our worship continues to have a virtual component, check the CHS website and the Thursday and Saturday CHS News for updated information. If you aren't on our email list, you'll miss a lot. Especially if you're new to our parish, make sure we know how to reach you! Don't assume that we do — nobody's perfect and there are no mind readers here! If we have your email and you aren't receiving the weekly CHS News and other announcements, you might want to check your Spam folder. Zoom and Facebook Live are simple to use. Ask if you need help. We want you with us!
